The Wasco County Election Contests

THE [illegible] JUDGE WHITTEN'S [illegible]

In the Circuit Court for Wasco County, State of Oregon. John Darragh, Plaintiff, vs James M Bird, Defendant.

This is an action brought by the plaintiff to contest the election of the defendant to the office of Sheriff of Wasco county, Oregon, to which office defendant claims to have been elected at a general election held in said county on the [illegible] day of June, A. D. 1870. Plaintiff claims that he received a greater number of the legal votes at said election, for said office, than did the defendant, and is therefore entitled to said office. Plaintiff alleges that J. B. Blanpied, J. Liddy, [illegible] Manning, T. H. Williams, W. C. Smith, J. S. Becky and divers other persons whose names are mentioned in plaintiff's complaint voted at such election for the defendant for the office of Sheriff in said county, and that such votes were illegal and should not have been counted for the defendant; that said persons were not at the date of their voting bona fide residents of Wasco county or the precincts therein. Plaintiff further alleges that at the time and place of holding said election in said county, Peter Runey, R. Graham, Wm McKay and divers other persons whose names are set forth in the complaint of plaintiff were qualified electors of Wasco county and legally entitled to vote; that said persons did appear at the polls and offer their votes for this plaintiff for said office, and were prevented from voting at such election for this plaintiff through the illegal acts of the judges of said election. Plaintiff claims that said illegal votes so received, recorded and counted for the defendant should not have been counted for him, and that the votes which were offered for plaintiff and by the judges of election rejected, should be counted for plaintiff; and that if the illegal votes which were received were deducted from the whole number of votes which defendant received for said office, and the votes which said judges illegally rejected were added to plaintiff's vote for said office, it would entitle plaintiff to said office. Plaintiff claims that there was one more vote counted for defendant than should have been counted, and there is one vote which should have been counted for plaintiff that was not counted for him.

The defendant for answer denies that plaintiff is entitled to said office, or that he received a greater number of the legal votes at said election for such office than did the defendant. Defendant admits that J. B. Blanpied, J. Liddy, T. H. Williams and others voted at said election in said county for him for said office, but denies that said votes were illegal; denies that Peter Runey, William McKay and others were on said day of election prevented from voting for plaintiff through the illegal acts of the judges of said election; denies that such persons were at said date bona fide residents of Wasco county, or that they were legally entitled to vote; denies that said votes so offered should have been recorded and counted for the plaintiff. Defendant admits that there was one more vote counted for him than should have been, but denies there was one less counted for plaintiff than should have been counted; and, for a further defense, defendant alleges that on the day of said election in said county Jesse Snooks, E. Kinney, Wm Kelly, Gustave Hines and divers other persons named in defendant's answer voted for plaintiff for said office, and that said persons were not, at the date of their so voting, bona fide residents of Wasco county and the precincts therein, and that such votes were illegal and should not have been counted for the plaintiff. Defendant then sets up some votes which were rejected, and claims that such votes would have been thrown for defendant had they not been rejected, and that they should be counted for defendant. To this plaintiff replies, making a complete denial of all the affirmative allegations set up in the answer.

Having thus briefly stated the issues in this case, they will be considered in the following order:

1st. The names of R. Henderson, E. Kinney and M. Meng—Kinney voting for plaintiff, the other two for defendant—are submitted on an agreed statement. Henderson, it is admitted, was a resident of East Dalles precinct on the day of election, and that he voted in Sutton's precinct. Sect. 17 of Article II of the Constitution of Oregon declares that "all qualified electors shall vote in the election precinct in the county where they may reside for county officers." Henderson's residence being admitted to be in East Dalles precinct on the 6th day of June, that being the day on which the election was held, he could not have legally voted in any other precinct for county officers, and there being no controversy as to where he did vote on that day, his vote for the office of sheriff, that being a county office, was illegal and should not be counted for the defendant. E. Kinney voted for plaintiff in East Dalles precinct and had declared his intentions to become a citizen of the United States less than one year immediately preceding the election. By reference to Sec. 2, Art. II of the Constitution it will be seen that to entitle a person of foreign birth to vote at an election he must have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States one year immediately preceding such election, conformably to the naturalization law. Kinney's case does not come within this provision, and he had no right to vote. M. Meng, who voted for defendant in East Dalles precinct, is a person, as appears by the agreed statement, who had been convicted of the crime of arson, and had been an inmate of the penitentiary of this State, and had been pardoned out before the expiration of his sentence. Sec. 14, Article V of the Constitution gives to the Governor of the State the power to grant pardons for offenses of this character. There can be but little doubt that the framers of the Constitution, in giving this power to the Governor of the State, were inclined to be as merciful toward the offender as would be consistent with public policy and public good. I cannot conceive it was the intention of those men to ever restore a person who had become so degenerate as to permit his passion to influence him to the commission of a crime involving both his civil and political condition to all the rights and privileges he previously held when an upright man. It is an act of mercy of which no one complains that the Constitution empowers the Executive to pardon, to [illegible] the offense for which one is imprisoned and restore him to his civil rights; but in order to prevent those who had any pride in their political rights from the commission of crime they are made to know and understand that if they do so far lose their self respect and the respect of others, there is no power in our Constitution, our laws or in the Governor of the State, that can restore them their political rights. Meng was, on election day, politically dead and had no right to vote.

2d. G. H. Kimberlin, G. Masterson, Z. Smith, Wm Bramlette, J. McMullin, W. A. Scroggins, A. A. Straw, L. Manning, F. Bird, T. H. Williams, J. Liddy, T. Brannan, T. Penny, W. C. Smith and J. S. Becky are the names of persons who voted at said election, and that said votes were recorded and counted for the defendant. It is claimed by the plaintiff that some of these persons voted out of the precinct in which they resided, that others were not residents of the county, as will appear as they are taken up in their order. Defendant claims for them that as they have no fixed residence, and as the constitution does not require a person [illegible] of the precinct any particular time, they have a right to say that the precinct in which they may [illegible] to be on the day of election is their residence for the time being, and that they can vote.

In passing upon the right of these persons to vote I lay this down as the law, that every person must have some fixed place of residence—must have a domicil, or else be under a disability that neither the law nor the courts can remove. Residence is a matter of intention and act; it may be gained and retained without [illegible] by mere temporary absence. It is claimed that these are persons whose occupations are such that they cannot make it convenient to [illegible] on the day of an election. Suppose they cannot. Then they must content themselves by voting for just such officers as the law entitles them to do, and for none other. It is true that irregularities without number have been permitted, or rather indulged in, and it is time they were corrected; and it makes no difference whether persons have voted ignorantly or wilfully. If ignorantly, it is time they know better; if wilfully, it is time they were taught to obey and respect the law. For a person to claim that he has a right to vote wherever he may chance to be on election day, and that [illegible] a precinct other than the one he was in he could claim the former as his residence, is not only contrary to law but to common sense. All general laws are intended to confer the greatest good upon the greatest number, and to attempt by special [illegible] to legislate so as to meet individual wants and circumstances would be preposterous. Applying these principles to the facts of the case of those above mentioned, and what will be the legal conclusion: Kimberlin voted in Sutton's precinct. From the evidence it is my opinion that Kimberlin had no such residence in Sutton's precinct as would entitle him to vote for county officers; Kimberlin admitting that if he had been in the Dalles or elsewhere on the day of election he would have claimed that other place as his residence. The mere passing in and out of a precinct will not establish a residence—it is nothing more than an occupancy, the person [illegible] being simply an inhabitant. Geo. Masterson voted in Sutton's precinct, and his condition is very similar to that of Kimberlin, and the evidence about the same. His residence [illegible] in my opinion was in Antelope precinct—and that he had no right to vote for county officers in the precinct in which he did. Z. Smith voted in Antelope precinct. The evidence shows that Smith came into Wasco county in February last, and then declared that he intended to vote in this county and make this county his residence. This I think was sufficient to entitle Smith to vote, though he might have been temporarily absent afterwards, and that his vote was properly received and counted for defendant. William Bramlette voted in Sutton's precinct and swore in his vote. This of itself is sufficient to entitle him to vote until the contrary is shown. There is evidence of his having left some of his effects in said precinct, and that he had a contract in said precinct partially finished. The evidence also shows that he had left the precinct and only returned on the morning of the election and then voted and again left. There is nothing in the evidence to show that he did not intend to return when he left the first time, and the presumption corroborated by the act of his coming back is strong in his favor that he intended to come back, and his vote was rightly counted. J. McMullin voted in Fifteen Mile precinct; that the dividing line between Fifteen Mile and Tygh precincts is the dividing ridge between Fifteen Mile and Tygh creeks; that McMullin lives on waters of a stream that runs to Tygh creek, but that it is some distance north of the divide [illegible] Fifteen Mile creek, being north of Tygh creek. The evidence shows that the stream on which McMullin lives runs through a gap in the divide between Fifteen Mile and Tygh, thus breaking the ridge which is the natural boundary between said precincts. I think the true rule in determining the boundary line between the two precincts where it is broken by a gap as shown from the evidence would be to draw a line from one point of the ridge to the other across the gap. To do this would leave McMullin north of the ridge and consequently in Fifteen Mile precinct. From the facts here shown McMullin's vote was properly received and counted in that precinct for defendant. W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning and A. A. Straw voted in John Day precinct. There is no doubt in my mind but that Scroggins, Manning and Straw were at the date of their voting residents in Antelope precinct, and that they had no legal right to vote in any other precinct for county officers, and such votes should not be counted for defendant. From the evidence I have no doubt Frank Bird was at the time he voted a resident in John Day precinct, and that his vote was properly recorded for defendant. T. H. Williams, a boatman, with no fixed residence, voted in Mosier's precinct, a case in every way similar to Kimberlin's, same decision as in that. J. Liddy voted in West Dalles precinct; had removed to Portland with his family in last March, leaving no traces of residence whatever behind him; came to West Dalles in the afternoon of day of election, voted and returned to Portland next day. I cannot think that Liddy had any residence in Wasco county on the day of election; certainly he had none in law, and if not he had no legal right to vote, nor should it be counted for the defendant. T. Brannan and T. Penny voted in West Dalles precinct. The evidence as to their residence is somewhat unsatisfactory. Their votes are attacked by plaintiff, and it devolves upon him to show affirmatively that they had no right to vote. There is doubt in my mind whether they were bona fide residents of Wasco county on the 6th of June, and I think there is sufficient reason to warrant me in rejecting them. W. C. Smith and J. S. Becky voted in West Dalles precinct. From the evidence there is no doubt but at the date of their voting they were residing in Grant county, and were here temporarily purchasing goods for transportation. It is my opinion they had no right to vote. J. B. Blanpied voted in East Dalles precinct. Whether Blanpied had resided in the State six months next preceding the 6th day of June last or not will make no difference in determining his right to vote, as other facts plainly settle this question. But were this the only evidence upon which to determine, I should, from Blanpied's own statement, have no hesitancy in deciding the case. When Blanpied offered his vote he was challenged by a legal voter. That challenge was insisted on and never withdrawn; Blanpied positively declaring he would not be sworn, and the judges as positively refusing to swear him. Under these circumstances he voted. The law so plainly settles this question that to say anything further than that Blanpied had no right whatever to vote would be superfluous—(Code, page 700, Sec. 15)—whenever a person is challenged by a legal voter, unless such challenge be withdrawn, he has no right unsworn to vote, nor can the judges, without disregarding the law and their own obligation, receive such vote. The law gives them no discretion in the matter—they must reject it.

R. Myers voted in West Dalles precinct. There is no question raised as to Myers' qualifications as a voter. It is claimed that he voted after the polls had been closed. The law fixes the time for opening and closing the polls (Code, p. 699, Sec. 11). Myers knew what time the polls closed, and if for any cause he stayed away until they were closed it was his own fault. The polls could not be opened again for his accommodation. In this case the evidence is somewhat conflicting as to whether the polls had been ordered closed at the time Myers voted or not. After a careful examination of the testimony it is my opinion that the polls were [illegible] before Myers voted; the evidence greatly preponderates in favor of this position, and comes from witnesses who are least liable to be influenced by their prejudices.

[illegible] it is claimed that H. Grelich, C. Cruver, C. Dunlap, George and Isaac Chapman, G. Hines, C. Fales, Wm Murphy, T. Shelly, J. Cunningham, A. Strong and J. M. Thompson have not resided in the State or county the necessary length of time prior to the election to entitle them to vote. It is my opinion that from the acts and declarations of the parties, except [illegible], as shown by the evidence, they were on the day of election residents of this State and county, and as such were entitled to vote. G. Hines is here in the capacity of a minister of the Gospel, and as such had been here about eight months prior to the day of election. I will make no comment in his case. There can be no doubt but that he had a right to make the Dalles his place of residence, and to vote there [illegible] to do so. C. Fales: there is but little objection made against him. He no doubt had a right to vote. Murphy had been temporarily absent for his health. He was [illegible] he went away, and the fact that he did return [illegible] the very best evidence [illegible]. His residence was not [illegible] by his temporary absence. He had a right to vote. T. Shelly came here as a teacher, came from one of the counties west of [illegible] after his arrival here [illegible] make this his residence, so declares; [illegible] was in the county more than [illegible] days prior to the day of election, and was [illegible] had been in the State and [illegible] years. It is said that [illegible] he had a [illegible] in New York [illegible] residence here. This [illegible]. Suppose a man leaves his family [illegible] seeking a [illegible] where to remove his family. He [illegible] here six months, has made arrangements for the removal of his family, but either [illegible] his family has not arrived, may never arrive. Circumstances that he could not foresee have changed his intentions; he sees a place where he can better his condition—may have made up his mind to remain in the other. In the meantime an election is held. Would the fact that he had made up his mind to remove to some other place deny him the right to vote? Certainly not. Such circumstances may cause any of us to change our residence [illegible] without affecting our rights [illegible] on his own evidence [illegible] this was his residence. This, with the fact that the party attacking the legality of his vote has failed to show anything to the contrary, is satisfactory to my mind that he had a right to vote. That [illegible] Dunlap, the Chapmans and [illegible] said removed from Washington Territory [illegible] at least two, the two Chapmans and Dunlap, [illegible] have not been in the State the required [illegible] to entitle them to vote. I think the evidence establishes satisfactorily that they have resided in this State more than six months prior to the 6th day of June last, and were entitled to their votes. As to Grulok, Cruver and Thompson, it is claimed that on the day of election they were in [illegible] Washington Territory and therefore had no right to vote. As to the two first I have no hesitancy in declaring the legality of their votes. I have serious doubts whether it was Thompson's intention when he moved across the river [illegible] W. T. to any longer claim Oregon as his residence, and the evidence being unsatisfactory, I shall, for the purpose of this action, refuse to count it for plaintiff.

I. L. Curry, J. Snooks, F. Zeller, A. J. Brown and C. Sergeant, it is claimed, are persons who voted out of the precinct in which they resided. There is very little difficulty in deciding as to Snooks, Zeltler, Sergeant and Curry. Sergeant voted in East Dalles precinct. The evidence shows that on the 6th day of June, the day of election, he resided in that precinct, and his vote should stand.

Snooks and Zeller both voted in East Dalles. The evidence shows their residence on that day to be in West Dalles. Their votes should not have been recorded for any of the county officers. Curry voted in Antelope precinct. I think from the evidence his residence is in Sutton's precinct, where he should have voted. Brown is one of those cases where a person slept in one precinct and boarded in another; but in giving his testimony as to his residence, he says "I think where Thomas Smith lives is my residence." Smith lives in West Dalles. Brown voted in East Dalles. If Brown was in doubt as to which precinct he resided in he should have informed himself in time; it is too late now. I think, from Brown's own evidence, he should have voted in West Dalles precinct. The rule which I have applied to the case of Strong and others—that the party attacking a voter must show in what respect he is disqualified, or the vote must remain undisturbed—will apply to the case of M[illegible] Cain, who voted in Fifteen Mile precinct, and to C. Gonzales, who voted in Tygh precinct, and to La Frages and Hensel and Huerta, who voted in East Dalles precinct. H. P. Cardwell, Jacob Fritz, and others of like circumstances, it is claimed, are disqualified from voting, for the reason that they are in Government employ. Many have fallen into this error for the reason that they make no distinction between an employe of the Government and a soldier, seaman or marine. Sec. 4 of Article II of the Constitution says: "For the purposes of voting no person shall be deemed to have gained or lost a residence by reason of his presence or absence while employed in the service of the United States or of this State." Sec. 5 of the same article says: "No soldier [illegible] shall be deemed to have acquired a residence in the State in consequence of having been stationed within the same, nor shall he have the right to vote." The question of residence being one of act and intention, the framers of the Constitution left the matter entirely in the discretion of the parties themselves. They say we will neither enlarge or restrict the right of persons in this respect, but leave it with them to elect as to where they will claim their residence. The difference between sections 4 and 5 is this: In the 4th the language is "for the purpose of voting," &c., evidently intending that the person himself should make the place of his choice his residence. Sec. 5 is "No soldier, &c., shall be deemed," &c., giving him no discretion in the matter. [illegible] 28 Cal. [illegible] is a case in point and very similar. Suppose that a person residing in Wasco county were to go to Salem in Marion county to work on a State building, and were to remain there two or three years, would it be contended that he had acquired no residence in that county because he had been an employee of the State? The fact that he is such employee does not deprive him of his right to elect whether he will remain a resident in Wasco county or whether he will abandon it and [illegible] another; and the principle is precisely the same whether he be an employee of the State or of the United States. H. P. Cardwell and Jacob Fritz had as much right to vote the State and county ticket on the 6th day of June for State and county offices as the oldest residents of Wasco county had. Another question arises which may as well be settled here as elsewhere. Code, p. 700, Sec. 14 says: "If any person offering to vote shall take such oath his vote shall be received unless it shall be proved by evidence, satisfactory to a majority of the judges, that he does not possess the qualifications of an elector, in which case a majority of said judges are authorized to reject such vote." The only point to be determined here is, must a person whose vote is rejected for any cause be entered on the poll books as such? There are some grounds for the opinion that a rejected vote need only be entered on the poll book with the names of the persons for whom he wishes to vote when he is challenged for disloyalty, as will be seen by reference to Code, p. 701, Sec. 16, viz: that if a person's vote is challenged for the cause mentioned in Sec. 11, and he takes the oath required and is then rejected, that his vote need not be recorded, &c. I think that for the protection of the voter, as well as the person for whom he wishes to vote, the better opinion is that all rejected votes should appear on the poll book in the manner prescribed in Sec. 18, p. 701 of the Code of Oregon. Any other rule than this would give to the judges of election the power of electing to office any person they might prefer, by rejecting the votes of all those who were opposed to the candidate of their choice. Unless some record be made of rejected votes they would be entirely lost to the person for whom they were intended, as will appear from an examination of that class which [illegible] in this action as legal voters and were prevented from voting through the misconduct and illegal acts of the judges. In passing upon [illegible] now raised, I cannot, from the law as [illegible], and [illegible] shall refer [illegible] votes in a manner that will change the result of said election, and it makes no difference whether they were properly or improperly rejected. The only relief I can afford is to carry into effect the express will of a majority of the legal voters as indicated by their votes (Code, p. [illegible], Sec. 4). In a contest the only thing that can be considered by a court or judge is the legal vote. There is nothing which authorizes a court or judge to open up the polls and count for one of the contestants votes that have been rejected and left unrecorded by the judges of election. [illegible] 34 Cal. 2[illegible] is a case in point. Courts and judges are powerless in a case of this kind, yet I deem it but justice to those who were improperly rejected, for there can be no question but that some of those offering to vote had a legal right to vote, to refer to some plain provisions of law that the legal voters may in future be protected from both [illegible] and fraud. [illegible] the fact that our [illegible] and fairly. It is the [illegible] shall be kept [illegible] dare to tamper with [illegible]. Irrespective of party all [illegible] that this right should be kept inviolate. [illegible] pages 6[illegible] [illegible] unmistakable language the manner [illegible] conducting elections and the legal rights [illegible]. Under the provisions [illegible] man who has [illegible] [illegible] had not in [illegible] to declare [illegible] offered to vote and was challenged [illegible] voter he should not [illegible] in any capacity.

H. Grellish, E. Bernard, F. A. Willis, J. P. McLaughlin submit [illegible] an agreed statement [illegible] for Darragh for sheriff and their [illegible] rejected all persons of foreign birth [illegible] at the time they had [illegible]. McLaughlin declared his intent [illegible] to become a citizen of the United States in 18[illegible]. Sec. 2 of Art. II of the Constitution is sufficient as to his case; his vote should be counted. Grellish, Bernard and Willis obtained their final citizen papers less than six months prior to the election. I cannot see why a person of foreign birth having [illegible] proper residence upon obtaining his final citizen papers is not as much entitled to vote the day after he has obtained them as the native born subject would be who attains his majority one day before an election. The rejected votes should be counted: R. Graham, D. [illegible], Reynolds, J. S. Morgan, P. Runey, J. Bamford, A. B[illegible], J. Sullivan, J. C. [illegible], W. Tarrant, and others. It is unnecessary to discuss this class further, as [illegible] has already been made [illegible] them, it appearing so plainly that no one need be mistaken unless he desired to. There is not a shadow of a doubt of the right of these persons to vote.

Wm McKay, Battise [illegible], [illegible] Ross and others of mixed blood [illegible] no legal right to vote. I have some doubts. I will not [illegible] determine it; it does not affect the result in this case, as to whether their votes were properly or improperly excluded. Having thus carefully considered this case, I find:

That the judges of the election had no right to record votes upon the poll books and then refuse to count them, there being no evidence that they were illegal.

That if judges of the election desire other proof of the competency of a voter beyond his sworn statement, the evidence must be produced at the time he votes. An elector must have some precinct as a residence in preference to all others to entitle him to vote for county officers, and he must vote in such precinct. A person refusing to be sworn when challenged by a legal voter has no right to vote.

A person offering to vote, and being ready to take the oath prescribed by law, his vote should be received unless it appears that he does not possess the qualifications of a voter, and even then must be recorded as a rejected vote.

A person of foreign birth is entitled to vote from and after the date of his final citizen papers, having proper residence.

An employee of the Government may, if he chooses to do so, acquire a residence the same as any other citizen, and when so acquired has a right to vote.

In a contest the will of a majority of the legal voters must be carried into effect as expressed by their votes. That of the legal votes for the office of sheriff—John Darragh 296—the votes of H. Grelish, McLaughlin, Willis, Bernard and Fritz, rejected by the judges, are now counted for said Darragh, and the votes of A. J. Brown, J. Snooks, F. Zeltler, J. L. Curry and E. Kinney, having been counted by the judges for him, are here rejected. J. M. Bird received for said office [illegible] legal votes. The votes of J. Liddy, G. H. Kimberlin, G. Masterson, W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning, A. A. Straw, T. H. Williams, T. Brannan, T. Penney, W. C. Smith, J. L. Becky, M. Meng, J. B. Blanpied and R. Myers counted for said Bird are here rejected. Bird having received a greater number of legal votes for said office than did Darragh, it is hereby ordered and adjudged that he have and hold said office, and that he have judgment against plaintiff for his costs and disbursements.

It is further ordered and declared that the costs and disbursements in this case be taxed at one fifth of the whole amount in all the five contested cases submitted. That in the case of C. McFarland vs M. Holland, contest for the County Clerk, submitted on stipulation that the filings and proofs in the case of Darragh vs Bird stand for the pleadings and proofs in this case. Of the legal votes C. McFarland received for said office 303; H. Grellish, E. Barnard, E. A. Willis, J. Fritz and P. McLaughlin, votes which the judges of election refused to count for plaintiff, are here counted, and the votes of A. J. Brown, E. Kinney, J. Snooks, F. Zeller and J. L. Curry counted for plaintiff are here rejected. That of the legal votes cast, M. Holland receives for said office [illegible]04; the votes of R. Henderson, G. Masterson, G. H. Kimberlin, W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning, A. A. Straw, T. H. Williams, J. Liddy, T. Brannan, T. Penney, W. C. Smith, J. S. Becky, M. Meng, J. B. Blanpied and R. Myers were counted for defendant and are here rejected. That Holland having received a greater number of the legal votes for said office than did McFarland, it is therefore ordered and adjudged that he have and hold the same, and that he have judgment against plaintiff for his costs and disbursements. It is further ordered and decreed that the costs and disbursements in this case to be taxed shall be the one fifth of all the costs and disbursements in all the five contested cases submitted.

That in the case of R. Grant vs Geo. Ruch, contest for the office of County Treasurer of Wasco county, Oregon, stipulations the same as in the case of McFarland vs Holland. Of the legal votes cast Grant received 296; that the votes of R. Henderson, G. Kimberlin, G. Masterson, W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning, A. A. Straw, T. H. Williams, J. Liddy, T. Brannan, T. Penney, W. C. Smith, J. S. Becky, M. Meng, J. B. Blanpied and R. Myers were counted by the judges of election for plaintiff and are here rejected; and that George Ruch received for said office of the legal votes 311; the votes of H. Grellish, E. Bernard, E. A. Willis, J. M. McLaughlin and J. Fritz were rejected by the judges and are here counted for Ruch, and the votes of A. J. Brown, J. L. Curry, J. Snooks, F. Zeltler and E. Kinney, counted for defendant, are here rejected. Ruch having received a greater number of legal votes for said office than did Grant, it is ordered and adjudged that he have and hold said office, and that he have judgment against said plaintiff for his costs and disbursements. It is further ordered and decreed that the costs and disbursements to be taxed in this case be one fifth of all the costs and disbursements in the five contested cases submitted.

In the case of E. Wood vs F. Fitzgerald and Wingate, contest for the office of County Commissioner—stipulation the same as in the case of McFarland and Holland. Wood received of the legal votes for the said office 311—the votes of H. Grellish, E. Bernard, F. A. Willis, J. Fritz and J. P. McLaughlin, not counted for Wood by the Judges of Election, are here counted for him, and the votes of A. J. Brown, J. L. Curry, J. Snooks, F. Zeltler and E. Kinney counted for him are here rejected. That of the legal votes for said office F. P. Fitzgerald received 301, and E. Wingate 29[illegible]—the votes of R. Henderson, G. H. Kimberlin, G. Masterson, W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning, A. A. Straw, T. H. Williams, J. Liddy, T. Brannan, T. Penney, W. C. Smith, J. S. Becky, M. Meng, J. B. Blanpied and R. Myers counted for defendants for said office by the Judges of Election are here rejected. Wood having received a greater number of votes for said office than Fitzgerald or Wingate, and being duly elected to said office, it is therefore ordered and adjudged that he have and hold said office, and that the Clerk of Wasco county issue to the said E. Wood a certificate of his election within ten days from the filing hereof, and that the certificates of election to said office heretofore issued to F. P. Fitzgerald and E. Wingate be each declared null and void as against the right of said Wood to said office, and that he have and recover from said defendants his costs and disbursements herein, and that the same be adjudged to be one fifth of all the costs and disbursements in the five contested cases submitted.

In the case of R. Mays vs F. P. Fitzgerald and E. Wingate, contest for the office of County Commissioner—stipulations the same as in the case of McFarland vs Holland. Of the legal votes for the said office Robert Mays received 3[illegible]; the votes of H. Grellish, E. Bernard, F. A. Willis, J. Fritz and P. McLaughlin, not counted for plaintiff for said office, are here counted, and the votes of J. Snooks, F. Zeltler, J. L. Curry, E. Kinney and A. J. Brown, counted by the judges for plaintiff, are here rejected. That F. P. Fitzgerald received of the legal votes for said office [illegible]01 and E. Wingate [illegible]; the votes of R. Henderson, G. H. Kimberlin, G. Masterson, W. A. Scroggins, L. Manning, A. A. Straw, T. H. Williams, J. Liddy, T. Brannan, T. Penny, W. C. Smith, J. S. Becky, M. Meng, J. B. Blanpied and R. Myers counted for Fitzgerald and Wingate for said office are here rejected. Mays having received a greater number of the legal votes than did Fitzgerald or Wingate, was duly elected to said office. It is therefore ordered and adjudged that he have and hold said office of Commissioner, and that the Clerk of said county of Wasco issue a certificate of election to the said Mays within ten days from the filing hereof, and that the certificate of election to said office heretofore issued to F. P. Fitzgerald and E. Wingate be each declared null and void as against the rights of said Mays to said office, and that he have and recover from said defendants his costs and disbursements herein, and that the same be adjudged to be one fifth of all the costs and disbursements in the five contested cases submitted.

Counting their Gains

A glance at the Democratic papers of the present time will show that they are engaged chiefly in the harmless occupation of boasting what their party is going to achieve in the approaching Congressional elections. They are very certain of a Democratic majority in the next House of Representatives and are figuring it up with just such an air of confidence as they exhibited in figuring on the election of McClellan and Seymour to the Presidency.

It would seem that the remembrance of past defeats should suggest to them whether they are not taking to themselves congratulation a little too soon on the supposed weakening and disruption of the Republican party. No acute political observer will declare that there are any evidences among the people of dissatisfaction with the measures of the Republican party to an extent that threatens a political revolution. In general as a contemporary observes, it has been the feature of the past in our political history, that a change of popular confidence from one party to another, has always been attended by unmistakable circumstances an intense and pervading popular aversion to the party in power, and a corresponding enthusiasm favorable to the rival political organization. This has been so palpable that we need not stop to illustrate the remark. But who will pretend to say that either of these conditions exist at the present. It is true that there is a measure of dissatisfaction with some of the specific items of legislation enacted by the late Congress and so there always is on account of difference of opinion as to what is best for the country but it cannot be doubted that there is a very decided satisfaction with the administration of President Grant. The increase of $32 000 000 in revenue receipts, and $19 000 000 in customs since Gen Grant's inauguration over the previous sixteen months and the lessening of expenses $50 000,000, the payment of $160,000 000 on the national debt and $80,000 000 reduction in taxation are palpable facts which can be easily understood and appreciated. Moreover the drift of popular sentiment is, not toward the Democratic party, but rather to correct any evils that may result by changing when necessary the delegation in Congress, substituting those in the Republican party who represent the popular view for those who do not. There is not the slightest enthusiasm for the Democracy nor any disposition to trust them. It is clearly seen that their purposes are revolutionary and the people are not desirous of an upheaval in behalf of obsolete institutions.

The general record of the Republican party and the substantial results it has achieved in financial and general affairs will outweigh any little dissatisfaction that may exist. The weakness which the Democracy count on with such certainty is infinitesimal. A Congressman may be lost here and there as the same amount of effort will not be put forth as in 1868, when the Congressional and Presidential elections in most of the States occurred at the same time. In Oregon the Republicans have more than held their ground, and if they could do this here they can do as well elsewhere.

American Opinion on the European War

The people of the United States are not the partisans either of Prussia or of France in their present struggle but the impartial observer and critic of both. Nevertheless it is apparent that a majority of Americans sympathize with Prussia. For this there are substantial reasons. While they are not the partisans of Prussia, they remember the conduct of Louis Napoleon in our war and his insult to this country in sending his legions to Mexico. They remember, likewise, the friendship of the Germans for us in our great struggle and the faith they manifested in us by taking our bonds at a time when both France and England were crying us down. But these are transitory reasons. There is a deeper principle on which the sympathy of the American people for Germany at this time is based. Germany is contending for a cause, a principle, which appeals strongly to the American mind. That cause or principle is national unity. Having ourselves but lately emerged from a tremendous struggle for the same object, we are in a situation to appreciate more clearly and intelligently the action of a people who are struggling for a realization of the comprehensive idea of a great and homogeneous nationality. The war as waged by Napoleon is a war to weaken Germany by dividing her. That is the whole basis of the conflict. Throughout all Germany the passion for national unity is strong, and this is a passion which Americans can appreciate. Behind it is a principle which takes a strong hold on the American mind. There is no hostility or animosity on the part of the American people toward France but France should stay at home. The principle of federative government for which Germany is contending is felt by Americans to be conducive to the general welfare of mankind. It assures progress in freedom and gives stable government. No country that is divided into many small and independent States can reach the destiny of which it is capable. France it is true feels that it is her policy to contend against the unification of Germany. That is the old European policy which has existed for centuries. But in these times the federative principle has received a new and great impulse, and it is becoming an accepted idea that it is the highest political interest of a homogeneous people to consolidate and blend together. This is the tendency of the present age, and Germany is acting under the impulse of it.

In all the speculations on the war in Europe, as an Eastern journal observes, one contingency has to be borne in mind, which is liable to occur at any time and to transform the whole aspect of affairs like the turning of a kaleidoscope. We refer to the death of Napoleon. This is not the only contingency which is liable to arise and effect a complete transformation. Another battle is [illegible] and if the French should meet another reverse there is no prophet keen enough to tell the result. But it is clear enough that the empire could hardly survive another defeat whatever might be the subsequent fortunes of France.

We publish to-day the decision of Judge Whitten in the contested election cases in Wasco county. As we observed a few days ago, the result of this decision is to give the Republicans the County Commissioners. It also proves that the Republican candidates for the Legislature were legally elected though that matter, of course, was not adjudicated, as it belongs to the Legislature itself. But if justice is done the Republican members of the House from Wasco county will obtain the seats to which they were lawfully elected.

Who Did It?

Hon J S Smith [illegible] letter [illegible] apologies on [illegible] to [illegible] Senator Williams [illegible] railroad interests of Oregon and to the great results that have accrued from them. He says:

> I was present during the last session of the 40th Congress and was consulted freely about Oregon matters by Mr Mallory who then represented the State and by Mr Congressman who was urging his railroad scheme on the attention of Congress. At that time it was very doubtful whether the land grant which has been secured by what is known as the Holladay Company [illegible]

It is Mr Smith remember who saved this important grant to the State. It was Senator Williams unaided and alone. Without his [illegible] as Mr Smith virtually admits the grant would have been lost. Had that [illegible] we should now be [illegible] and no prospect of any. Yet Senator Williams for taking this action was bitterly assailed especially by the Democratic politicians and newspapers who hoped to make party capital by it. In this unjust war against [illegible] they were abetted by Mr Smith himself. All remember that Williams insisted on such legislation as would save that grant to the State that he prepared a bill for that purpose and passed it in spite of vigorous opposition even from Oregon men. We have in Mr Smith's present statement a full justification of his act. It cannot but be observed that notwithstanding all that has been said from time to time [illegible] of Williams for his course [illegible] They who censured him for [illegible] now admit that he was right and they who made war upon him because of his action in the case of the Humboldt branch have already materially modified their views. Even Mr Smith being now a candidate for the United States Senate is forced to declare that he will work and vote for Williams' amendment to the Humboldt bill.

NOTES ON THE WAR

Cable dispatches say that there is general satisfaction throughout Germany and England on learning that in general the Americans sympathise with Prussia.

Baron Gerolt, Envoy of the Northern German Union at Washington, has written a letter to Secretary Fish in which he returns acknowledgements for the recent note of the former in which mention was made of the harmony which has existed between Prussia and the United States ever since the latter became an independent nation.

In Russia Government opinions favor Prussia the liberal papers sustain France. The St Petersburg Gazette blames France wholly the Moscow Gazette and the Exchange Gazette blame Prussia. The Golos was at first for Prussia and is now against but urges strict neutrality on the part of the Government. The Messenger, an official paper, at first attacked Prussia so strongly that the Prussian Chargé d'Affaires complained.

It was stated in Paris dispatches which we published yesterday that it was possible that a Dictatorship would be declared in France with Gen Trochu at its head. This man the Army and Navy Journal says, is undeniably the best soldier in France. Should the war, says that paper survive its first battle a fortnight, and promise, as seems very likely, to be a long one Trochu's name may chance to appear at the head of the French armies.

A Frankfort letter asserts that King William has not the Napoleonic or Bourbon ambition of placing the princes of his house on thrones in every direction, his sphere of action being solely in Prussia and Germany, faithful in that respect to the idea of the Great Frederick, who would not have the crown of Poland for his brother, Prince Henry. The House of Hohenzollern since it has settled in Brandenburg has confined itself to its German mission, and that course has constituted its strength.

The London Globe of July 16th says that some idea of the depreciation in the value of securities caused by the war, may be formed from the fact that in the English consuls and the foreign stocks the value declined between July 4th and 12th to the extent of £76 295 000, and in British railways to the amount of $10 000 000 sterling. About £15,000,000 may be added for German, Dutch Austrian and Belgium stocks, and it must be remembered that all securities have still further declined since the declaration of war.

The Democratic press of the United States is generally sympathising with Louis Napoleon. The New York World the Boston Post the Cincinnati Enquirer, the Chicago Times the St. Louis Times the Louisville Courier-Journal and nearly all the leading Democratic papers in fact, are hot partisans of Napoleon against the Germans. In the meantime, Republican and independent journals of broad sympathies are favorable to our German fellow citizens having every privilege of sympathy for the Fatherland consistent with the neutrality of our government.

OREGON

The Enterprise wants a Common Drunkard ordinance passed at Oregon City.

The average yield of flax seed in Linn and Marion counties seems to be about twenty bushels per acre.

A fire on the lower end of French prairie last Saturday burned 8,000 rails belonging to Thos Gregory.

The Statesman says it is six minutes ride from the corner of State and Commercial streets to the place where the railroad depot is to be established, east of that town.

The stockholders of the Tualatin Fur Company had a meeting last Thursday evening. The proceedings of the Company are held strictly private for the present. We quote from the Oregon City paper.

THE TERRITORIES

Good diggings are reported in the new mines on Snake river but not half enough of them for the people now there. In and around the mines there are about 600 men.

A party of three men had their horses stolen by Indians twenty miles below Salmon Falls on Snake river last week. They followed the Indians and succeeded in recapturing all but one of the animals. The Indians made their escape among the rocks and the miners being poorly armed thought best not to follow them too far.

The Owyhee Avalanche of the 6th inst has this: Parties just from Snake river report a rumor current at that place that Jeff Standifer and a party of 11 others had been attacked by Indians in the Wind river range of mountains and Standifer with others of the party killed. W L Burnham, formerly of this place, was one of the party.

The so called "Democratic" press in this country shows its non democratic proclivities by a general admiration of Louis Napoleon and by generally taking sides with him in the quarrel he has picked with Germany. The New York World the Boston Post the Cincinnati Enquirer the Chicago Times the St Louis Times the Louisville Courier Journal and nearly all the leading Democratic papers in fact, are hot partisans of Napoleon against the Germans while the Republican press is just as naturally almost unanimous in sympathy with the German nation.

It is not generally known that Dr A H Guernsey is no longer editor of Harper's Magazine, a position he has filled for the past fifteen years. He demanded a change, and now acts as "reader" for Harper Brothers.

METZ Aug 11 —No engagement has taken place. Rain fell in torrents during the night. Troops are in excellent spirits.

LONDON Aug 11 —The City Council of Brussels has voted an address of thanks to Queen Victoria for assisting in Belgium's neutrality.

A cable special to the Herald from a correspondent who was present at the battle of Worth telegraphs from Carlsruhe that the French official accounts of the battle of Worth are wholly untrue. McMahon was completely routed. The French abandoned everything and fled leaving the killed wounded and prisoners numbering 20,000 out of 50 000 engaged. The French held strong positions in the [illegible] first with prestige and the French very badly [illegible] sides fought desperately. Finally the French gave way in a panic. Accounts representing Strasbourg still in communication with Nancy are untrue. Strasbourg has been completely besieged since Monday and the gates are shut. Heavy artillery is on the way to the Prussians. A stout resistance is expected. The Crown Prince is vigorously pursuing McMahon and another engagement is expected. It is believed that the object of the Prussians is to get between Metz and Paris.

LONDON Aug 11 —A dispatch from Carlsruhe to the Globe announces that Strasbourg is invested on all sides, the Prussians who hold the railway. General Boyer who commands the city was summoned to surrender but refused. It is said the citadel is plentifully provisioned but garrisoned by only a regiment of the line and the national guard of the place.

A cable dispatch to the Tribune from Paris Wednesday evening, says: The new cabinet means to take strong measures against Paris as well as Prussia, but do not be mistaken. Another reverse and the Emperor is gone. Confidence has been utterly destroyed. The popular devotion is for the country and no longer for a dynasty. Everything looks as if the Orleanists or a republic would succeed the Emperor.

A dispatch from Copenhagen states that the French fleet moved south yesterday. The bombardment of Kiel and Stralsund is expected hourly. Seven ships with troops are expected in the Baltic to-morrow.

MADRID Aug 11. A decree of amnesty has been issued by the Government which includes all persons guilty of all varieties of crimes against the country.

News from Paris

LONDON, August 12 —A special correspondent writes from Paris, Wednesday evening, as follows: Extraordinary precaution was taken to-day to protect the Corps Legislatif. Besides infantry and cavalry two batteries of artillery were in position. The Bank of France still professes to pay in specie, but gives only silver for notes. The run on the bank to-day was very severe. Several millions in specie was paid out yesterday and to-day.

Private letters say McMahon's treasure chest, containing a million and a half of francs in gold, was captured by the Prussians.

PARIS August 12 —The Journal Officiel publishes a decree declaring the department of Haute Garonne in a state of siege.

The Wurtemberg Troops!

STUTTGARD, August 12 —In the battle of Worth the first corps of Wurtemberg contingent lost six officers and twenty three men killed 239 wounded and 118 missing. At Gorischemielle the Wurtemberg troops captured one mitrailleuse, the cannon and one staff carriage of the fourth division, 2,200 prisoners and 500 horses.

Dispatches from London

LONDON, August 12 —Duke Chartres has asked permission to take service in the French army. He claims the privilege as a Frenchman who has learned something of the art of war in America and Italy.

The Telegraph is authorised to contradict the formerly report that the Prince Imperial is in London.

McMahon marched out of Saverne on Sunday night on one side of the town just as the Prussians were marching in on the other.

It is reported that Prince D'Auvergne will decline the Portfolio of foreign affairs on account of ill health.

BRUSSELS, August 12 —Last night there was an enthusiastic popular demonstration before the palace of the British legation.

LONDON August 12 —The Times this morning says the pride of France is wounded and her prestige dimmed. Victorious or discrowned is Napoleon's alternative on the next battle field.

Prussian accounts from Montgrats say that nothing could equal the destruction of life at Werth. From some accounts it is believed that Napoleon was on the field with McMahon.

Russell writes to the Times that at the French headquarters they were wholly ignorant of the details of the battle of Werth but were impressed with the belief that it was decisive and important in its results. Thiers is reported to have said that the Empire was ended and a Republic inevitable.

A Paris dispatch says a letter from Chas Desmortie is published dated at Nancy, and denouncing the Emperor's bad generalship. It says McMahon gallantly struggling was beaten for lack of support though there were multitudes of armed Frenchmen at hand eager to have him pass the Rhine. The commissariat is utterly inadequate. Prussia to-day was at Alsace. To-morrow she will have Lorraine. The people are desperate. The soldiers believe themselves betrayed and clamor for leaders.

Luxemburg having asked for a reaffirmation of her neutrality, the Powers reply that the existing guarantee is sufficient.

LONDON, August 12 —The Bank of France suspended specie payment to-day.

Admiral Farragut's Condition

PORTSMOUTH August 12 —Farragut is still alive but weaker.

MONTANA

HELENA August 12 —The Sioux and Crow Indians had a fight a short time ago between Big Horn and Little Horn rivers. A diary was found on the person of a dead Sioux containing the following entry: "Wednesday, August 14 1867 T. H Mann and party en route to Big Horn. Hope if anything happen to party and this diary be found it be sent to Helena M T. Signed T H Mann and Weston & Son." Another part of the diary contains under date of March 5 1868 an entry of twenty six names given route traveled up to August 22d 1867 through Bozeman Boulder and on to Deer Creek after which the book must have fallen into the hands of the Sioux. The diary also contains about thirty illustrations by Indians recording the killing of white men and running off stock both horses and mules. Two of the illustrations represent the mules attached to wagons.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 12. Of the freight by the Japan to-day 100 tons mainly teas go direct to New York via the Isthmus. This is one of the heaviest invoices ever received for New York from Japan.

Hong Kong dates to July 12th furnish the following quotations: California Wheat $2 10 @ 2 20. California Flour $1[illegible] to per 50 lb sks $2 1 @ 2 2 per 100 lb sks and $[illegible] per bbl in wood. No 1 China Rice $1 [illegible]. No 1 Chinese Sugar $ 50 @ [illegible] $11 50 @ 1[illegible]. Black Pepper $ [illegible] Prepared Opium $ [illegible] per 1 000 taels.

Only thirteen Chinese women arrived by this steamer and three hundred men.

Details of the Tientsin massacre received by the Japan show that 23 Europeans including the French Consul and nine sisters of charity were killed and about four Chinese children. Chung How, the head mandarin says that the attack arose partly from a suspicion which existed in the minds of the people that scoundrels who have been using drugs to kidnap children were connected with the Roman Catholic Churches, and partly from the conduct of the French Consul, M Fontainier who fired a pistol in Chung How's "Yamen," and who shot at the Chih Hsien, which excited fury and led to the Consul's death, and the burning of the churches. The French Consul is said to have demanded: First that 0 of the Tientsin barbarians should be decapitated before properly authorized French representatives. Secondly an indemnity of one hundred millions and to be paid to the representative of the deceased and for the restoration of property. Third that a French force be established in Tientsin and the taken forts for a certain number of years at the expense of the Chinese Government. The leading Chinese officials have been arrested by orders of the Chinese Government and held for punishment. It is reported that the foreign Governments will probably allow the Chinese Government to investigate and settle the matter paying a heavy indemnity to the families of the victims.

The Typographical Union meeting to-day decided to strike and resolved to allow all members to work wherever they can obtain it at sixty cents for evening papers and sixty five for morning papers. The object being mainly to retain their positions in offices which have not yet discharged the union printers but are preparing to do so. Offices in which strikes have occurred refuse to recognize the Union in any shape here after and will neither allow it to make regulations for them nor employ its members.

The Democratic Convention has not made any nominations this evening up to 9 10 but it is generally thought they will renominate Holt for Auditor, Denman for Superintendent Schools and Dolan for Public Administrator.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

GILROY August 11 —About 10½ o'clock last night a woman named Mrs Page gave herself into custody stating she had shot and killed a man named Beckwith Kelly about four miles from town on the road leading to San Juan and described the place where the body would be found. Deputy Sheriff Woodruff proceeded immediately to find and take charge of the body until the Coroner could be summoned. It was found in a clump of Willows about 100 yards from the road, shot in three places. One shot had taken effect in the right eye one in the forehead and one in the breast, and must have caused instant death. It is rumored that Kelly had circulated reports derogatory to Mrs Page's character causing the separation of herself and husband. Having no redress she took the law in her own hands. She came to Watsonville on the stage yesterday, hired a horse and buggy and wanted Kelly to ride with her. About 2½ o'clock he accepted the invitation and was last seen alive about 6 o'clock, forty miles south, driving toward Gilroy. Mrs Page is about 27 years of age and very prepossessing in appearance. She will have an examination to-morrow.

Pomeroy's Democrat pitches into August Belmont Chairman of the National Democratic Central Committee, in a manner at once lively and entertaining. It states that, in a file of one hundred and forty thousand letters from Democrats in all the States, every soul of them is against Belmont and has not a particle of faith in his Democracy. All predict a party collapse from his leadership, and the only problem is how to get rid of him. The agent of Rothschild and of the bondholders of Europe and America makes a strange appearance as figure head of the Democratic party.

LOOK AT THE RUINS —Aye Look at the ruins of what once were magnificent sets of teeth to be seen everywhere in society. Look at them and ask yourself if it is not marvellous that such destruction is permitted, when by simply using SOZODONT ANY TEETH HOWEVER FRAGILE, may be preserved from decay or blemish as long as life lasts.

CITY.

ARREST [illegible] According to the published reports the man Shults has either been captured or cornered in about [illegible] different sections of the country within the last [illegible] day or two [illegible] Sheriff [illegible] There [illegible] him and [illegible] Sauvie's Island [illegible] He has been seen [illegible] And he [illegible] been arrested [illegible] newspaper reports will know where such [illegible] does seem that common [illegible] would dictate that the sensational part [illegible] should be dropped. We do not doubt that a very large majority of all the stories and reports about Shults in connection with the events in and about Portland have been got up by sensation mongers or by [illegible] in the city. The [illegible] one of burglary robbery [illegible] while Shults could be kept a bugbear thieving [illegible] have everything attributed to bear [illegible] It must be confessed they have Shults [illegible] succeeded wonderfully for a long time in keeping the public mind excited and in that nervous condition where credulity bears down reason. Is it not time for [illegible] be renamed as played out? Let it be understood that the thieving and acts of outlawry which are being perpetrated so frequently are the acts of persons who are seen on our streets every day and night and let the vigilance of the police and constabulary be directed toward these and it may be set down as certain that crimes and misdemeanors will be less frequent. For Heaven's sake at all events let us hear less of Shults.

BRIEF MENTION —Fires are reported on the mountains on [illegible] sides of the Columbia.

The Herald has heard that J R Prindle who disappeared from Portland a couple of weeks since passed through La Grande last week, bound East.

Estes & Stimson's saw mill has turned out within the last thirty days over 400 000 feet of lumber and yet has not kept up with the demand.

The fire on the east side of the river back of and beyond Milwaukie has destroyed a vast amount of timber and is still raging.

Hay of the new crop begins to arrive freely and is sold from the wagon at ten to twelve dollars per ton.

Large and very fine water melons are received every day from Wasco county. A specimen sent in by C M Martin retail grocer last evening was pronounced by the boys to be 200 per cent above last one.

There are eight prisoners now confined in the county jail—seven for larceny and one for assault and battery.

It is expected by Germans in this city that $3,[illegible] will be raised for the Prussian sanitary fund.

METHODIST ITEMS —From the Advocate of to-day:

An adjourned meeting of the Publishing Committee of the Pacific Christian Advocate will be held at the Taylor Street M E Church on Monday evening August 22d.

The members of the committee on examination and the members of the class to be examined in the Conference studies for the first year are respectfully requested to report themselves at the M E Church in Vancouver at 9 o'clock A M, August 24th.

Unless the steamer should fail to arrive in season some of the ministers who are on board may be expected to preach in the Taylor Street M E Church on Sabbath next. Rev Mr Myers will preach at the Lutheran church, at 11 o'clock A M, on the observance of the Sabbath.

Bishop E R Ames of the M E Church, was among the passengers by the N P T Co's steamship California, which sailed from San Francisco on Monday last. Rev C C McCabe, Agent of the Church Extension Society, and Rev D H Carroll and families are also on the list.

ARREST OF CHARLES GALL.—By some means, the name of Charles Gall has been associated with that of Shults and a gang of men supposed to have been lurking in the woods north of the city. It came about upon mere supposition no doubt, as we never heard of anybody who ever saw Gall in that company. He was arrested in this city yesterday while in a state of beastly intoxication, and forthwith the sensation mongers began to buzz around that "Shults's pal" had been taken, and the arrest was mentioned in the Bulletin in similar connection. There is no evidence thus far that Gall knows anything about Shults, except upon rumor. We are told by a policeman that Gall represents himself as having been at work down the river. He is but a petty offender, and probably is totally unaware of the distinction gratuitously given him by the irresponsible reports above mentioned. This thing of connecting everybody and everything bad with Shults, is getting extremely sickening.

THE RAILROAD —It is stated that the bridge over Pudding river will be completed to-day. The work of piling across Lake LaBish will be finished in a few days and then the road will be ready for ties and rails to a point several miles beyond Salem. Work has already been well begun on the Santiam river bridge. As soon as the rails shall arrive (vessels now due) the track will be put down with all possible speed and we reasonably expect to go by rail to the State Fair. The City Council of Salem has passed an ordinance to vacate the streets and alleys of the blocks they have given for a depot site for the railroad. They also resolved publicly that the Company should have the privilege of laying their track through the center of Twelfth street and that the city shall proceed to have said street opened its whole length through the city limits.

CATHOLIC ITEMS —The term of the Academy of the Sacred Heart Salem will open on the 22d inst.—The Holy Angel's College, Vancouver will open its next session on the same day. Rev Father Goens of Salem announces that it is the intention of his "small but devoted" congregation to hold a fair in the pavilion at the fair grounds during the time of the State Fair for the benefit of his Church. On Monday the 15th the Church will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin. In this city, at the Catholic Church Low Masses will be said at six and eight o'clock and High Mass at 10 o'clock A M. Vespers at 8 o'clock in the evening.

M E ANNUAL CONFERENCE —The next session of the Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at Vancouver W T commencing on Thursday Aug 25th at 9 o'clock A M. Bishop E R Ames presiding. Rev H K Hines announces that boats will leave Portland for Vancouver at 5 o'clock P M and 7 A M of each day. Preachers attending Conference will be taken at half price. Brethren will be informed of their places of boarding at the boat landing or at the Vancouver House. The Presiding Elders will meet Wednesday evening Aug 24th at Mr Hines' residence at 8 o'clock.

CITY.

SENSATIONAL AND FOOLISH.—According to the published reports, the man Shultz has either been captured or cornered in about four different sections of the country within the last day or two. Out of Columbia county, is after Sheriff Williams, of Columbia county, is after him, and sure to bag him! There is positive information that he is "using" on Sauvie's Island! He has been seen at or near Monticello! He has been arrested at Roseburg! And the Lord only knows where sensational newspaper reports will next plump him down. It does seem that common sense would dictate that the sensational part of the Shultz question be dropped. We do not have a particle of doubt that a very large majority of all the stories and reports about Shultz in connection with the events in and about Portland, have been got up by sensation mongers or by thieves within the city. The latter could ply their vocations of burglary, robbery and thieving while Shultz could be kept a bugbear, trusting to have everything attributed to him. It must be confessed they have succeeded wondrously for a long time in keeping the public mind excited and in that nervous condition where credulity bears down reason. Is it not time for this to be treated as played out? Let it be understood that the thieving and acts of rascality which are being perpetrated so frequently are the acts of persons who are seen on our streets every day and night, and let the vigilance of the police and constabulary be directed toward them, and it may be set down as certain that crimes and misdemeanors will be less frequent. For Heaven's sake, at all events, let us hear less of Shultz.

FOREST MENTION.—Fires are reported on the mountains on both sides of the Columbia.

The Herald has heard that J. R. Prindle, who disappeared from Portland a couple of weeks since, passed through La Grande last week, bound East.

There are eight prisoners now confined in the county jail—seven for larceny and one for assault and battery.

It is expected by Germans in this city that $2,000 will be raised for the Prussian sanitary fund.

EPISCOPAL ITEMS.—From the Advocate of today:

An adjourned meeting of the Publishing Committee of the Pacific Christian Advocate, will be held at the Taylor Street M. E. Church on Monday morning, August 22d.

The members of the committee on examination of the members of the class to be examined in the Conference studies for the first year, are respectfully requested to report themselves at the M. E. Church, in Vancouver, at 9 o'clock A. M., August 24th.

PERSONAL.—Hon. J. R. McBride, of Idaho, arrived in this city yesterday.

We are happy to announce that Mr. J. H. Mitchell, who has been dangerously ill is much better.

MAILS BY RAILROAD.—The Oregon City Enterprise says: "We learn from reliable authority that the mail will be carried by the railroad in a few days, connecting at Aurora with the stages."

BENEFIT TO CHAS. THORNTON.—Mr. C. Thornton is advertised for a benefit to-night at Oro Fino Theater, the names of a considerable array of volunteers appearing upon the bills.

MORE STREET ROWDYING.—Persons who were out on the morning papers till daylight yesterday morning, report hearing pistol shots in the street, as they were going home.

SURVEY.—The U. S. schooner Humboldt has been ordered to survey Warren's Slough, near Tongue Point, on the lower Columbia.

CURRENT NOTES.

In glancing carelessly at the head of the Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald, we find the following advertisement: "The Vicksburg Daily Herald, Jas. M. Swords, publisher, Wm. R. Spears, editor." Without any desire to be uncharitable, we would say that such a peculiar combination ought to be able to produce something exceedingly "sharp" and to the "point."

The total assessed value of property, real and personal, as returned by the Assessor of New York City, for the year 1870, amounts to $1,047,427,049, being an increase over 1869 of $83,169,585. The heaviest wards are the Eighteenth, which represents over $60,000,000; the Nineteenth, $71,000,000, and the Twenty-first, that counts up $64,500,000.

With the single exception of "Let us have peace," we know of no other masterpiece of oratory which has been so "cruelly" misapplied as Admiral Fisk's "Gone where the woodbine twineth." A Southern reporter in furnishing "his account" of the recent execution at Richmond, Va., says: "After hanging for four minutes, his soul left its earthly tenement and went where the woodbine twineth."

The debt statement shows a reduction of $17,000,000 during July. The total debt is $2,475,303,457 83; and interest $34,579,343 57. Coin in the Treasury, $102,930,206 20; currency, $38,068,623 20; debt, less cash in the Treasury, $2,369,324,476; Pacific Railroad bonds outstanding, $64,618,832; interest due and unpaid, $3,230 94; amount paid, $8,815,345; amount repaid by transportation, $2,257,078.

A lady in Pennsylvania had her eye-sight restored last week by an operation, after having been blind for several years. The first thing she did, after objects became visible, was to sit down and read a number of letters, which she presumed had been sent to her husband by ladies during her blindness. The feelings of the poor woman can be better imagined than described, when she found that her jealousy had been occasioned by a number of coal and washing bills.

Many of Nasby's pictures in Harper's Weekly are more forcible arguments than a column of print would be. In a late issue of this paper he depicts Pope Pius IX. sitting astride a limb extending from a tree, the trunk being labeled Nineteenth Century. The old gentleman is cutting off with a saw, named infallibility, the branch between himself and the trunk and when he has finished the operation will drop into a very uninviting tract of ground called the Middle Ages.

A New England landlady of the Mrs. Weller order, was recently agitated beyond description by the sudden reappearance of an old boarder, whose body was supposed to have been fished out of the Connecticut River some time previously. She insisted on his being a ghost, and declined to have his trunks removed to the "other world" until brought to her senses by a magisterial order. The friends of the resurrected man are now beginning to wonder who it was they had the honor of burying.

It is a little singular that Massachusetts, with its devotion to sumptuary laws, is the principal headquarters in the United States for rum. In fact, with two exceptions, all the rum made in the country is distilled in Boston and the immediate vicinity. The principal point is Medford. "Old Medford rum" is as familiar as a household word in every well-regulated bar room. But rum as a beverage is going out of use. The greater part of the export is now sent to the African coast, along with tobacco and missionaries.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Rev. Dr. Prime, of the New York Observer, has returned home, after having completed a journey around the world.

The Common Council of London have offered the honorary freedom of the city to M. de Lesseps, of Suez Canal fame, in a gold box of the value of one hundred guineas.

George A. Elliott, who died at Erie, Pa., recently, was one of the founders of the first Sabbath school in that city, and Horace Greeley was numbered among its earliest scholars.

The Baltimore Germans have started the project of sending Gen. Sigel as a representative German American to the German armies, provided King William will give him a prominent position therein.

Henry K. Brown, of Newburgh, is authorized by the Government to make a bronze equestrian statue of Gen. Scott, to be erected in Franklin Square, Washington. It is to be made of cannon captured in Mexico, and will cost about $30,000.

A Swede in Lafayette, Ind., hearing a discussion between a Frenchman and a Prussian, rushed up with, "Vich is Prussia and vich is France. By Got, I vites too. Who knows vich side Sweden takes in dish vite?"

LITERARY NOTES.

John Forster is at work on a biography of Dickens.

Frank Moore, American Secretary of Legation at Paris, is writing a life of Burlingame.

Mrs. Richardson-McFarland is collecting her magazine articles into a volume, which will shortly be published.

"Lothair," it is stated, will soon be put on the Index expurgatorius of Rome, for its reflections on Jesuitism in England.

Miss Phelps, whose success began with "Gates Ajar," is said to be making more money than any female writer, and yet, during her school days, she was considered the most stupid in her class.

A society for the study of the Talmud in Paris celebrated the final conclusion of their translation of the Talmud by a supper. It took them twenty five years to pass through all the volumes of this work.

A female novelist is about to publish a book under the startling title of "Naughty, Naughty, But So Nice." Flirtation will, no doubt, constitute the thesis, for the naughtier a flirtation is the nicer it is, of course.

"SPALDING'S GLUE" useful in every house.

The last phase of the Chinese question has come to light in St. Louis where, about one hundred householders have completed arrangements for the introduction of Chinese house servants into their families. The necessary negotiations have been made with the Chinese emigration society in San Francisco, and the first installment will number about three hundred. The householders who have joined in this enterprise have agreed to pay good wages, certain stipulated sums, and to afford all necessary protection for the term of years for which their servants are employed. On the other hand guarantees of good service are given by the Chinese under forfeiture of contract. These arrangements have been quietly made, and in a short time the Chinese will come in just as quietly, and at once drop into the homes that have been provided for them.

The proof, long wanting, that the Cubans have established a government, has just been triumphantly furnished in an official act of President Cespedes. He has vetoed a resolution of the Cuban Congress, under the following circumstances: Citizen Domingo Mendez fell in the service of the insurgents, and the Congress passed a decree giving his family a sum of money. But the watchful executive dissented. The action of the Congress, he said, not only violated the constitution of the Republic, but it "introduced one of the institutions of the middle ages." Therefore the proposed benefit for Citizen Mendez's family must take some other form. This event affords conclusive proof of the reality of the Cuban Republic. The government that has risen to the dignity of a veto must not be sneered at.

With reference to the state of preparation in which Prussia enters into the present struggle, a writer in the London Standard recalls the highly important fact that the system which fixes the Prussian army at one per cent. of the population, fixes also her army estimates at two hundred and twenty-five thalers per man. Hence, if Prussia wants new or improved material of war, if she wants to carry on experiments or to man forts, she must do so by reducing the number of men. This she is said to have done to such an extent that the strength of her active army, nominally three hundred thousand men, has been reduced to about two hundred thousand. Prussia is also stated to be in the act of changing her infantry arm and substituting a new needle gun, while her supplies of ammunition are said to be meagre.

OUR CITIZENS certainly deserve credit, for the energy they display to make the Oregon Immigration and Labor Exchange a success and benefit to the State, as well as the immigrant coming to our State. Every citizen should give all the aid in their power to help the large number of strangers coming to our State, and not forget to inform them that Kuhn & Fishel, No. 91 Front street, have the largest stock of clothing in Oregon, other goods are of superior quality and sold at extreme low prices.

Health Restored.

The effects of youthful indiscretion, and excessive sexual habits, causing a general debility and prostration of the nervous system, cured in 30 days, without the use of mercury. Address S. E. KORN, Portland, Oregon. jy7daw6w

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with all who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sieve-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the elements of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustaining elements can be supplied by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when writing down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and the constant physical or mental labor. All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" so-called, which have been started by sordid speculators, in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast to that which is good." Of the forty millions of people in the United States probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague and want of appetite that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

A Better Tonic than Quinine.—Calisaya bark of the purest quality is a prominent ingredient of PLANTATION BITTERS. With it are combined the juices and extracts of a variety of succulent, anti-bilious and antispasmodic and antiseptic vegetable substances, all whose properties are preserved and rendered diffusible by the pure spirit of the sugar cane—the most genial and harmless of all stimulants—but this, best and lowest of stimulants is, after all, the most important medical agent contained in the Bitters.

In the various complaints for which quinine is prescribed, PLANTATION BITTERS may be given with the certainty of producing the good effects claimed by the faculty to result from the use of that dangerous alkaloid, without the fear of any subsequent evil consequences. The entire harmlessness of the Bitters is guaranteed, the testimony on this point, from the highest sources being conclusive.

We call attention to the annexed testimonials.
WM. H. WATKINS,
President of the Board of Trustees.
A. C. GIBBS, Secretary.

Rev. W. H. ROGERS, A. M., of the Genesee Conference, for the last three years, the popular and successful Principal of the Gilbert Institute, Springfield, N. Y., has accepted the call to the principalship of the Portland Academy, Oregon. We congratulate our Oregon friends on the prospective transfer to their midst of an able minister and a superior educator. Professor Rogers is a worker, and his labors will prove invaluable to any community where they are put forth.—N. Y. Christian Advocate.

PROF. ROGERS is a man of superior talent and culture.—Cattaraugus Republican.

It is needless to say that his efforts have been appreciated. The results tell it most emphatically. He found our school in a dilapidated condition. It now ranks among the first in New York.—Student's Repository.

The German American Movement

The [illegible] the German American [illegible] for the [illegible] of their [illegible] to have the wounded soldiers of Germany [illegible] over the whole of the United States. Large mass meetings have been reported from the States of New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Missouri and Maryland, and the majority of the other States, though we do not remember having seen reports of mass meetings, have probably [illegible] an equal amount of the interest in the cause of the [illegible] fatherland. Never before has there been a movement of such extent among our German population. It is very gratifying [illegible] from all quarters that the leaders of the movement with great earnestness insist on the absolute necessity of obeying in every respect the laws of the United States. From the large cities the movement spreads rapidly to the small towns and villages. Like the German newspapers, the mass of the population appears to be remarkably [illegible], the greater or less success depending chiefly on the circumstance whether or not the town or district has men of organizing skill. The Executive Committee of this city displays remarkable activity. A Committee of Correspondence, consisting of Professor Schem, Dr. H[illegible], Mr. Ottendorfer, Gen. Sigel and Governor Salomon has been instructed on the one hand to make a thorough canvass of the State of New York, and urge the holding of meetings and the establishment of branch Patriotic Aid Societies in every place which has a German population, and, on the other hand to confer with the societies of other States as to the propriety of placing this whole [illegible] movement under one central direction, and of making it thus the more influential and effective. The Committee have on that account issued a circular which we publish on another page inviting all the German Patriotic Aid Societies of the country to a National Convention at Chicago on the 18th of August.

It has been proposed in some quarters to send over a prominent German American to Germany to look personally after a faithful execution of all the intentions of the American society. Gen. Sigel, who enjoys a [illegible] served popularity with Germans of all political parties, has been asked whether, if tendered to him, he would accept such a position, and he is reported to have expressed a readiness to undertake the mission. The Staats Zeitung of this city declares in favor of the proposition, but thinks that so important a mission should not be conferred by one single city, but only by a National Convention.

Can Prussians Whip Frenchmen

Referring to the battles of 1813, 1814 and 1815, in which the Prussians were often exclusively pitted against the French alone, so as to afford test trials of the relative fighting prowess of these two peoples, a well informed European writer in the Cincinnati Commercial, Mr. Daniel Roemer, says:

There were ten great battles in 1813, namely: Lutzen, May 2; Bautzen, May 20 and 21; Lucknau, June 3; Gross Beeren, August 23; Katzbach, August 26; Dresden, August 26 and 27; Kulm, August 30; Dennewitz, September 6; Leipzig, October 16, 18 and 19; Hanau, October 29 and 30; besides the engagement of Wartenberg, October 3; the combat of Moeckern, near Magdeburg, April 5, not to be confounded with the battle of Moeckern, October 16, which formed an episode in the battle of Leipzig. The combats of Konigswarthe and Weissig, May 18; the combat Am Goerder Wald, September 16; the combat near Wermer between Tettenborn and La Fevre Decrouettes, whose date I have forgotten, and innumerable smaller fights impossible to remember.

The only battles in which Prussians alone, without being incumbered by Russians or Austrians, fought the French, were Lucknau, Gross-Beeren, Katzbach and Dennewitz and the engagement of Wartenberg, in all five of which the Prussians were victorious. The battle of Dennewitz is moreover the most glorious victory of this century. Forty thousand Prussians under Bulow utterly routed seventy thousand Frenchmen under Ney. No nation can show such a glorious victory in the present century. In the year 1814 there were six important battles: La Rothier (Feb. 1), Bar sur Aube (Feb. 27), Laon (March 9, 10), Montereau (March 15, I believe), Arcis sur Aube (March 20) and Paris (March 30); then the engagement of Craonne (March 8, if I remember right), the combats of Champaubert, Vauchamps, Etoges, Montmirail, besides minor fights, as for instance La Fere Champenoise. Of these the Prussians alone engaged the France at Laon, Etoges and Montmirail, in the first victoriously, in the two latter they were beaten. In 1815 there were two battles, Ligney and Waterloo, and two engagements at Quatrebras and Wavre, beside the smaller fights. Of these the Prussians fought alone at Ligney and Wavre; in the former they were beaten, the latter was undecided.

The French People and the War

[Cable Dispatch (July 2[illegible]) to N. Y. Tribune.]

I have by this time gone through a large section of France—the war section. It is true that, having only traveled by rail, the view I have had is but a hasty cutting up of this portion of the country. Still I find opinions too clearly and evidently marked to make me personally doubtful of the state of public opinion.

First—By the officers the war is [illegible] as at once their due, and as the greatest boon the Emperor could bestow upon them.

Second—The soldiers with the colors accept it with enthusiasm, in many cases with pleasure.

Third—The reserves, who have been out on unlimited leave, take it as a terrible duty, which it is their hard luck to have to discharge, but their opinions rapidly merge with those of their comrades.

Fourth—The upper class, commercial, educated, &c., all talk of La France, how the Prussians must be beaten, how La France should be and is united. Now it is not patriotic to abuse the government. This being settled, they immediately pull the Government to pieces. They say Mexico was the cause of Sadowa. We should have fought in 1866. In both Bismarck outwitted our Government. The pretext for war is a bad one; we should not have fought until 1871. Still the war was inevitable, and La France must be and is united.

Fifth—The peasantry and the lower classes of Alsace support the war; their attitude is plain and unequivocal; their homes may be burned, their crops and cattle may be taken by requisitions (although it must be said that they firmly believe this will happen to their German neighbors over the border); still they acclaim the war. They fete the soldiers. Most of them talk German, some French. To be sure that [illegible] saying much. Many of them do not talk French at all. Still, as M. Thiers says, "The wise policy of Colbert has made of them the best Frenchmen in France, and the larger the number of the men who speak their own tongue that fall in the first battle the better they will be pleased."

What act of despotism has Napoleon ever committed, asks a New York paper, which King William has not at least equalled, if not exceeded, in Prussia? Was this former Bourbon, sworn to defend a Republican Government, overthrown by military force, subjugated the whole of France by a horrible massacre of hundreds, many say thousands—of unarmed and inoffensive men and women, and the summary imprisonment and exile of the best citizens, and then made himself Emperor. The means by which he [illegible] to the throne was what is called in [illegible] political phraseology [illegible] any less. What has King William [illegible]—N. Y. Tribune.

The ancient city of Philadelphia still adheres to the old fashioned volunteer fire department. On Sunday, July 10, an outrageous riot occurred among the firemen, and as a part of their preliminary proceedings an incendiary fire was kindled which destroyed a large amount of valuable property. The insurance companies refuse to pay the losses on the ground that the destruction of the property was the result of riot.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 834

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of Eighth street lying between Stark and Jefferson streets.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The improvement of that part of Eighth street lying between the south side of Stark street and the center of Jefferson street shall be completed [illegible] before the first day of October 1870.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank, timbers or other obstacles or perishable materials (sidewalks, crosswalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade excepted). If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within [illegible] days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, laying sidewalks and crosswalks together with plank gutters wherever the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the City Surveyor may direct.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of and [illegible] Ordinance No. 93 [illegible] Ordinance [illegible] improvement of streets.

Section 5. The Contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress and shall be responsible for any loss or accident occasioned by carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council August [illegible], 1870.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved August [illegible], 1870.
